1ª Conferência de Tradução Portuguesa
1st Portuguese Translation Conference

Under the auspices of FIT – Europe

Translation sustains countries' development and progress and plays an increasingly influential role in today's world. In being called upon to counterpose human communication in all its different forms, it has long staked out its importance as a practice and a skill intersecting all branches of knowledge and professional experience.

Such characteristics are evident above all in specialised translation.

The contrapor2006 conference, organised by the ATeLP – Associação de Tradução em Língua Portuguesa under the auspices of FIT – Europe aims at giving these concepts shape in the Portuguese language.

contrapor 2006, the 1st Portuguese Translation Conference, will be a forum for researchers, teachers, translators and clients purchasing translations to discuss the general theme:

Specialised Translation: An Engine For Development

Conference Topics

Translation Theory and Practice
Science and Technology
Social and Human Sciences
Terminology and Communication
Translation Tools
Standardisation in the Language Industry
